

Percentage Charge by Volts

12 Volt AGM Battery

This graph shows approximate battery voltages representing percentage charge for a 12 volt AGM battery.

Batteries should not be discharged below half charge or 12.3 volts. Doing so will significantly reduce battery service life.

Discharged batteries should be returned to a fully charged state as soon as possible to maximise battery life.

Battery life is reduced by deep or prolonged discharge cycles.

Barry Clark Marine